St. Peterssburg, June 12.—The columns of the expedition against Khiva, which started from D'Jisak and Kasslivist, effected a junction at Chalaot on the 14th of April. On the 27th of April, a Khivan force attacked the Russian van June June Chalaot guard near Chalaot and a sharp engage-ment took place, during which two Rus-sian Colonels were killed. The Khivans were finally defeated and retreated pre-patches from Central Asia, received in his city to-night, state that the van guard of the force marching against Khiva in attendance. A large number of ladies were present, the smallest grand stand devoted to their use being filled. A slight slowness was manifested in the track on account of the dust. The track, however, was very good, notwithstanding the best torsea kept their record as slow as possible. Bill McLaughlin, Ed. Brown, and John Roach challenged the admiration of all by their excellent driving.

The first race was for a purse of $1,500, open to horses that never trotted better than 2:44; $750 to the first horse, $400 to the second and $200 to the third. The first disparent was awarded to Joe O'Dell, secrom the east, under command of Gen
